NOTES ON PROXIES

- 1 A member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of members of the Company may appoint a person as the member's proxy to attend and vote for the member at the meeting.
- 2 A proxy need not be a member.
- 3 If the member is entitled to cast 2 or more votes at the meeting, the member may appoint 2 proxies. If the member appoints 2 proxies and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the member's votes each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise half of the votes.
- 4 A proxy appointed to vote for a member has the same rights as the member to attend and speak at the meeting.
- 5 If the proxy form is signed by the member but otherwise left blank, it shall be deemed to be a valid appointment of the Chair of the meeting as the member's proxy.
- 6 A member may vote or abstain as he or she chooses. If a member lodges a valid proxy form and indicates the manner in which the proxy will vote on any resolution, the proxy must vote or abstain on a poll or show of hands in accordance with any instructions on the appointment.
- 7 If a member desires to direct the proxy how to vote on a particular resolution, the member should place an "X" in the appropriate box.
- 8 The Chairman of the Company will chair the meeting and will vote all undirected proxies in favour of each of the resolutions.
- 9 The appointment of a proxy must be signed by the member or their attorney duly authorised in writing. If the appointor is a corporation, the appointment must be signed by its duly authorised attorney, or executed in accordance with section 127 of the Corporations Act or signed by a director or secretary of the appointor. A corporate member wishing to appoint a natural person to act as its representative at the meeting can do so in accordance with the Corporations Act. The representative should bring a certificate which on the face of it has been duly executed by the corporation as prima facie evidence of his or her authority to act as the representative of the corporation at the meeting.
- 10 To be valid, the instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or executed (or a copy certified by a notary), must be received by the Company at the addresses specified below by not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for the meeting or any adjournment thereof.
